Information

POLYURETHANE

- Environmentally sensitive and modern material of high quality allowing you to build-up a complex and clear pattern.
- Polyurethane does not affect the ozone layer, does not contain freon, does not contain cyanides, does not contain asbestos.
- High quality material allowing you to build-up a complex and clear pattern.

FLEX

- Polyurethane-based material is suitable for creating of figurable linear components.
- Polyurethane-based material is suitable for using the components on flexible surfaces.
- Polyurethane-based material improves the flexibility to components, which in turn increases its scope of application in projects.

HIGH DENSITY POLYMER

- High density shock-resistant polymer.
- High density polymer coated with an additional protective layer and possessing high impact resistance coefficient.
- High density polymer coated with an additional impact resistant layer.

FIBERGLASS

- Fiberglass is fiber or filament made of glass or its derivatives, and due to the complex manufacturing process, it ultimately acquires unique properties indistinctive for regular glass. It is suitable for manufacturing large-sized components with clear patterns.
- This material allows the production of high-strength and large sizes components of low weight, complex configuration and clear pattern.

Make markings on the wall using a pencil to define the cornice location

Cut cornice with saw at a 45 degree angle.

Apply adhesive along the edges at the back of the cornice as well as the mating surface.

Join both cornices together, so that their profiles match. Use special adhesive to attach the items.

Ensure proper alignment on joints before nailing.

Apply filling knife to process the joints of cornices.

Use sand paper to smooth the surface.

Cover walls and ceiling with tape. Using brush, coat cornice with paint.

Before installation, stucco elements must be the same temperature as a room. For this, you have to leave them in a room for 24 hours.

Make sure that the walls and ceiling in the places of installation of the stucco elements are dry and clean, for more reliable gluing them with polyurethane.
