The name Hylat is derived from the word "خلعة" (hil'at), which translates to "robe of honor" – a prestigious garment historically bestowed by rulers upon distinguished individuals

In ancient times, these silk robes were powerful symbols of respect, gratitude, and distinction, underscoring the status and uniqueness of the recipient. This rich tradition of honoring exceptional merit and loyalty inspired us to create the Hylat brand, reflecting this heritage through our carefully crafted products.

The story of the "hil'at" traces back to the Ottoman Empire and ancient Persia, where these robes represented not only power and prestige but also a tangible acknowledgment of exceptional contributions and loyalty. At Hylat, we aim to echo this sentiment by producing products that embody the highest levels of appreciation and care for our customers.
